Instructions from Brighton - Driving

From the A27 take the turn through Cuilfail Tunnel at Lewes . At end of tunnel turn right towards Ringmer, right again at Ear Wig corner and straight through Ringer. At end of village take first exit towards Heathfield. One long straight road through Halland, B2192, straight over past Buffalo Bill's on roundabout, thru Blackboys, 2 miles after Black Boys Inn take a left at Cross In hand towards Mayfield B2102, left at the end onto A267 towards Mayfield. Go thru Five Ashes, then turn left onto Horleigh Green Road, which is just after sign to Skippers Hill prep school . Go along Horleigh Green road for approx 2 miles, then look out for narrow steep road on right, on a left hand bend, farm house on the corner and this is Argos Hill road. It has access only sign at top. Watch out for tractors its narrow road. 300 yards down Argos hill road, past a big barn and farm yard on right then there is a little parking spot on the left opposite Brook Farm house . This is Lymley wood car park.

If coming from Tunbridge Wells on the A267, you may enter at the top end of Argos Hill Road, just at Mayfield roundabout. Be aware this is a VERY steep and bumpy road. Advised to carry on along the A267 towards Five Ashes and then take Horleigh Green Road on the right before Five Ashes.

A267 is the key road to find wherever you are coming from!
